

Refugee Apostolate, Inc. Privacy Statement

This is the Refugee Apostolate's Internet Privacy Statement.

Information Collection and Use

The Refugee Apostolate is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others. The Refugee Apostolate collects information from our users at several different points on our Web site. Personal info provided by users will be used by the Refugee Apostolate to improve the site and provide a more personalized experience for the user. Information which identifies a specific individual will not be disclosed to others.

Registration

It is optional for a user to complete a registration form. If a user chooses to complete one, a user is required to give certain information (such as name and email address). This information is used to contact the user about the services on our site for which they have expressed interest.

Links

This Web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that the Refugee Apostolate is not responsible for the privacy practices of such sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of every Web site that collects personally identifiable information.

Newsletter

If a user wishes to subscribe to our push email technology or newsletters, we ask for contact information such as name and email address.

Security

This Web site takes every precaution to protect our users' information. All of our users' information is restricted in our offices. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (e.g., our Finance department) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The servers used to store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

Choice/Opt-out

Users who no longer wish to receive our newsletter may opt-out of receiving these communications by following the "unsubscribe" instructions in the email message.
